NEW BUSINESS:

1. National Night Out - Sergeant Pearse recapped what he has ready for National Night Out on August 2, 2016 at the Baseball Diamond. . Salamone's agreed to sell pizza by the slice again at $2.00 per slice, and Sergeant Pearse stated that he only purchased juice and water this year instead of soda for National Night Out. In place of the bouncy house Sergeant Pearse reserved a dunk tank that Officer Fulton volunteered to sit in. A relay race will be played and lead by the firefighters. Jill Wedig brought the 18 red shirts and 18 blue shirts for the kickball game that came in and gave them to Sergeant Pearse. Scott Kramer will provide the PA system and play the National Anthem when the event starts.
2. Street Dance (September 17, 2016) - The Street dance will be September 17, 2016 from 3:00 PM -7:00 PM. The recreation board are going to contact a DJ to see what their prices are since they are trying a different theme this year.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

1. Fall Fishing - Dan Jarocki will contact Mike Mungor to check on dates for the youth fall fishing tournament. The committee would like to have fall fishing during the same weekend as the Village Wide Garage sale. Nothing else reported.

2. Halloween - Halloween will be October 29, 2016 from 4:00 - 5:30 PM. Natalie Scibona will talk to the school and check for the available date. The recreation board decided that they will not be taking over the Halloween Spooktacular pumpkin display that Trustee Belt hosted last year. Nothing else reported.
3. Newsletter - The Street Dance, Fall Fishing, Halloween, Santa, Holiday Lights, and Luminaries are the events for the winter newsletter. Nothing else reported.
4. Fall/Winter Event Cards - The Street dance is 9/17 from 3:00 - 7:00 PM, Fall Fishing is TBD pending Mike Munger's schedule, Halloween is 10/29 from 4:00 - 5:30 PM, Santa will be in town 11/27 from 4:00 - 5:00 PM, Holiday Light nominations are due by 12/13 by end of day to Village Hall, and the Luminaries are on 12/18. Nothing else reported.
